ITEM 4: ADVISORY BUSINESS

Who we are

McIlrath & Eck, LLC (referred to as “we,” “our,” “us,” or “McIlrath & Eck”), has been registered as an investment advisor since December 2007. Our principal is Thor McIlrath.

Services we offer

Financial & Estate Planning

The financial planning process consists of the following steps:

- Establishing the client relationship,
- Gathering data determine goals, expectations and risk tolerance,
- Determine the client’s financial status
- Developing and presenting the financial plan
- Implementing the financial plan
- Monitoring the financial plan.

Investment Management

We design custom portfolios which are tailored to the client. We use personal information you provide, such as goals, time horizon, tolerance for risk, cash flow and net worth along with the basic concepts of Modern Portfolio Theory to structure a diversified portfolio. The custom portfolio becomes our target asset allocation model. We use a combination of active and passive management to select the investments within each asset class. We may use a combination of ETFs, mutual funds or individual securities depending on the client’s situation. The portfolio is monitored on a regular basis and adjusted as necessary in order to maintain our target asset allocation model.

Let us know if you would like to restrict investments because of moral, ethical, or religious beliefs and reasons. We will respect and attempt to carry out your wishes. Note that we can only commit to avoid securities you mention by name.

We do not provide portfolio management services to a wrap fee program.

Portfolio Research and Asset Allocation Services

We use qualitative and quantitative analysis for each reviewed holding. This entails review of ratings from agencies such as Standard & Poor’s, Dow Jones, Morningstar, Bloomberg, and many other third party research companies. We combine this with our own reasoning using such factors as PE ratios, sales, and the like.

Assets under management

As of December 31, 2017, we manage assets of $304.1 million on a discretionary basis. We had no non-discretionary assets under management.

- You must provide authorization for us to deduct fees by initialing the appropriate section of our contract.

- You are responsible for reviewing the accuracy of the fees being billed, as the custodian will not do so.

An advisory client may terminate, as of the close of any calendar month, by providing 2 weeks written notice. Upon termination, any prepaid fees will be prorated to the date of termination and unearned fees will be returned to the client.

Other Costs Involved

You are be responsible for the below types of fees for your account in addition to advisory fees.

- mutual fund loads (if applicable). These charges are paid to brokers as a form of commission.
- management fees for ETFs and mutual funds. These are fees charged by the managers of the ETF or mutual fund and are a portion of the expenses of the ETF or mutual fund.
- brokerage costs and transaction fees for any securities or fixed income trades. These are generally charged by your custodian and/or executing broker.

Additional information about brokerage costs and services is provided in “Item 12: Brokerage Practices.”

Conflicts of Interest

McIlrath & Eck may recommend insurance products to clients as part of the financial and estate planning services described above. Mr. McIlrath and Mr. Eck are licensed life insurance agents, and as such sell life insurance and annuities products. If you elect to implement any insurance recommendations through either of these individuals, in his capacity as an insurance agent, he will receive the standard commission for those transactions. The insurance products sold are transacted with a variety of insurance companies on a commission basis. All commissions will be fully disclosed to the client.

You are under no obligation to purchase or apply for any insurance products, or to use Mr. McIlrath or Mr. Eck as the broker for insurance products purchased. If you decide to purchase or apply for insurance, or use Mr. McIlrath or Mr. Eck as the broker for insurance products, a conflict may exist between the interests of McIlrath & Eck and the interests of the client. Our advisory fees are not reduced to offset commissions received by individuals for insurance products.

ITEM 6: PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES AND SIDE-BY-SIDE MANAGEMENT

We do not receive performance fees for managing accounts.

ITEM 7: TYPES OF CLIENTS

We provide investment advisory services to individuals, trusts, and pension plans.

Generally we require that investment management clients maintain $250,000 under management with us. However, we may waive that minimum at our sole discretion.

ITEM 8: METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES AND RISK OF LOSS

When managing your account, we utilize Fundamental Analysis and Technical Analysis,

Fundamental Analysis includes analyzing securities by evaluating its economic and financial factors such as financial statements and SEC filings. We review the conditions of the relevant sector and overall economy and asset class.

Our primary sources of information comes for financial newspapers, magazines, corporate reports, research materials prepared by others such and S&P, Morningstar and various other third party resources.

Technical Analysis involves analyzing past market data and looking for trends to attempt to recognize a pattern to attempt to take advantage of future price movements.

We utilize an asset allocation strategy, long term and short term.

Asset allocation is based on a risk and needs analysis of the clients at the beginning of the client relationship and through continuous reviews. We take in account the client's financial situation, goals, objectives and investment experience. Our primary strategy is to use passive manage index allocation using exchange traded funds, mutual funds and to some extent individual investments. Assets classes we use but not limited to are cash, bonds, stocks, REITS, manage futures, commodities, and hedge funds.

Long Term Strategies- we buy securities/investments with the intention of holding them in the clients account for a year or longer to provide position/exposure to asset classes

Short Term Strategies- we may purchase securities with the intent to sell them in the short time frame less than a year in an attempt to take advantage of conditions that we believe will result in favorable price swing.

Asset Class Risk- Securities in your portfolio may underperform in comparison to the general securities markets or other asset classes.

Market Risk- portfolios may experience loss of principal in short term due to short term market movements and longer periods during market downturns.

Management Risk- The performance of your accounts is subject to risk that our investment strategy may not produce intended results

Inflation Risk- A dollar tomorrow will not be worth as much as today, purchasing power erodes with the rate of inflation.

Liquidity Risk- A investment may not be readily converted to cash

Interest Rate Risk- Fluctuations in interest rates may cause investment prices to fluctuate.

Investing is not without risk, and involves the risk of loss of principal that the client should be prepared to sustain. Investment returns are not guaranteed and clients may lose money on their investments. You should be aware of your risk tolerance level and financial situations at all times.

ITEM 9: DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Registered investment advisors are required to disclose any material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary actions that would be material to your evaluation of the investment advisor and each investment advisor representative providing investment advice to you. We have no information of this type to report.

ITEM 10: OTHER FINANCIAL INDUSTRY ACTIVITIES AND AFFILIATIONS

Mr. Eck, as an attorney, provides legal services to his clients. Mr. Eck expects that some clients to whom he provides legal advice may also become clients of McIlrath & Eck. Clients of Mr. Eck are under no obligation to use the services offered by McIlrath & Eck, and clients of McIlrath & Eck are under no obligation to use the legal services offered by Mr. Eck. Mr. Eck provides some legal analysis to clients as part of McIlrath & Eck's financial planning services.

Mr. McIlrath and Mr. Eck are licensed life insurance agents, and as such sell life insurance and annuities products. They may recommend insurance products to clients. Although many insurance products are commission-free, they may receive commissions if a client elects to purchase insurance products through them. All commissions received are disclosed to clients.

Please see additional disclosure regarding the conflicts of interest involved in this relationship that are provided in Item 5.

ITEM 11: CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS AND PERSONAL TRADING

Code of Ethics

We have adopted a set of enforceable guidelines (Code of Ethics), which describes unacceptable conduct by McIlrath & Eck and our associated persons. Summarized, this Code of Ethics prohibits us from:

- placing our interests before yours,
- using non public information gathered when providing services to you for our own gains, or
- engaging in any act, practice or course of business that is, or might be considered, fraudulent, deceptive, manipulative, or in violation of any applicable law, rule or regulation of a governmental agency.

Please contact us if you would like to receive a full copy of this Code of Ethics.

Personal Trading for Associated Persons

We may buy or sell some of the same securities for you that we already hold in our personal account. We may also buy for our personal account some of the same securities that you already hold in your account.

It is our policy not to permit our associated persons (or their immediate relatives) to trade in a way that takes advantage of price movements caused by your transactions.

We may restrict trading for a particular security for our accounts or those of our associated person if there is a pending trade in that security in a client account. Trades for our accounts (and those of our associated persons) will be placed as part of a block trade with client trades, or individually after client trades have been completed. Additional information about block trades is provided in the Aggregation of Orders section of “Item 12: Brokerage Practices.” When our trades are placed after our client trades, we may receive a better or worse price than that received by the client.

McIlrath & Eck and its associated persons may purchase or sell specific securities for their own account based on personal investment considerations without regard to whether the purchase or sale of such security is appropriate for clients.

All persons associated with us are required to report all personal securities transactions to us quarterly.

ITEM 12: BROKERAGE PRACTICES

Recommendation of Brokers

In recommending brokers to execute portfolio transactions, we make a good faith judgment of about which broker would be appropriate. We take into consideration not only the available prices and rates of brokerage commissions, but also other relevant factors that may include (without limitation):

- the execution capabilities of the broker/dealer,
- research (including economic forecasts, investment strategy advice, fundamental and technical advice on individual securities, valuation advice and market analysis),
- custodial and other services provided by the broker/dealer that are expected to enhance our general portfolio management capabilities,
- the size of the transaction,
- the difficulty of execution,
- the operational facilities of the broker-dealers involved,
- the risk in positioning a block of securities, and
- the quality of the overall brokerage and research services provided by the broker/dealer.

We do not maintain custody of your assets, although we may be deemed to have custody of your assets if you give us authority to withdraw assets from your account (see “Item 15: Custody”). Your assets must be maintained in an account at a “qualified custodian,” generally a broker/dealer or bank. We require that our clients use Pershing as the qualified custodian. We are independently owned and operated and are not affiliated with Pershing. Pershing will hold your assets in a brokerage account and buy and sell securities when we instruct them to. While we require that you use Pershing as custodian/broker, you will decide whether to do so and will open your account with Pershing by entering into an account agreement directly with them. We do not open the account for you, although we may assist you in doing so. If you do not wish to place your assets with Pershing, then we cannot manage your account. Not all advisors require their clients to use a particular broker-dealer or other custodian selected by the advisor.

Aggregation of Orders

There are occasions on which portfolio transactions will be executed as part of concurrent authorizations to purchase or sell the same security for another client or one or more of our associated persons.

We may choose to block (aggregate) trades for your account with those of other client accounts and personal accounts of persons associated with McIlrath & Eck. When we place a block trade, all participants included in the block receive the same price per share on the trade. The price is calculated by averaging the price of all of the shares traded. Due to the averaging of price over all of the participating accounts, aggregated trades could be either advantageous or disadvantageous. Commission costs are not averaged. You will pay the same commission whether your trade is placed as part of a block or on an individual basis. The objective of the aggregated orders will be to allocate the executions in a manner that is deemed equitable to the accounts involved.

Soft Dollars

“Soft dollars” are typically generated when an investment advisor enters into an agreement with an executing broker to receive a portion of the commissions generated by the advisor’s client trades. The soft dollars are allocated to the investment advisor and can then be used to purchase items or services. The investment advisor has a fiduciary duty to its clients to obtain best execution, on an overall basis, for any securities transactions.

We do not use soft dollars as described above. The SEC changed the wording of certain questions on the Form ADV and has indirectly changed the definition of soft dollars. Due to the new wording, the receipt of goods and/or services from a third party in connection with providing advice to clients could be seen as “soft dollars.” The additional services we receive from custodians, as disclosed in Item 14 below, would fall under this description of soft dollars.

ITEM 13: REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

Financial and Estate Planning

A review of your financial plan is conducted at least once a year. This review is conducted to determine if your needs and goals have changed. All reviews are conducted by Thor McIlrath, managing member and portfolio manager, Brian Wyatt, portfolio manager and/or Troy Crutcher, financial advisor.

Other factors may trigger a more frequent review such as, change in needs, unexpected or future events such as: change in marital status, death, disability or other events that may have a financial impact on the client.

Investment Management Services

A review is conducted at least once a year. This review is conducted to determine if your needs and goals have changed and if changes are needed to the portfolio asset mix. Asset mixes are reviewed to determine if they need to be rebalanced to meet your needs and goals while taking in account their risk tolerance. You will typically receive an invitation for portfolio and financial plan reviews 2-4 times per year.

Other factors may trigger a more frequent review such as change in risk tolerance, change in needs, unexpected or future events such as: change in marital status, death, disability or other events that may have a financial impact on the client.

All reviews are conducted by Thor McIlrath, managing member and portfolio manager, Brian Wyatt, portfolio manager and/or Troy Crutcher, financial advisor.

Clients receive a statement of their account monthly from the custodian that shows the account positions.

ITEM 14: CLIENT REFERRALS AND OTHER COMPENSATION

We receive economic benefits from custodians that we use to execute trades in client accounts. These benefits include the following products and services (provided without cost or at a discount):

- receipt of duplicate client statements and confirmations;
- research related products and tools;
- consulting services;
- access to a trading desk serving investment advisor participants;
- access to block trading (which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions for execution and then allocate the appropriate shares to client accounts);
- the ability to have advisory fees deducted directly from client accounts;
- access to an electronic communications network for client order entry and account information; and
- access to mutual funds with no transaction fees and to certain institutional money managers.

We do not directly or indirectly compensate anyone for client referrals.

ITEM 15: CUSTODY

If you give us authority to deduct our fees directly from your separately managed account, we have custody of those assets. In order to avoid additional regulatory requirements in these cases, we follow the procedures outlined in “Item 5: Fees and Compensation.” You will also receive quarterly statements directly from custodian of the account that details all transactions in the account. We do not accept physical custody of client assets.

ITEM 16: INVESTMENT DISCRETION

As one of the conditions of providing investment management services, you are required to provide discretionary authority for us to manage your assets. Discretionary authority means that you are giving us a limited power of attorney to place trades on your behalf. This limited power of attorney does not allow us to withdraw money from your account, other than advisory fees if you agree to give us that authority.

You grant us discretionary authority by completing the following items:

- Sign a contract with us that provides a limited power of attorney for us to place trades on your behalf. Any limitations to the trading authorization will be added to this agreement.
- Provide us with discretionary authority on the new account forms that are submitted to the broker/dealer acting as custodian for your account(s).

You may let us know if you would like to be involved when we make adjustments in the target asset allocation model.

ITEM 17: VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

We do not accept the authority to vote proxies on your behalf. You will receive proxies and other related paperwork directly from your custodian. Upon request we will provide guidance about voting a specific proxy solicitation.

ITEM 18: FINANCIAL INFORMATION

We do not charge or solicit pre-payment of more than $1,200 in fees per client six months or more in advance. We have never filed for bankruptcy and are not aware of any financial conditions that are reasonably likely to impair our ability to meet our contractual obligations to clients.
